IN

CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.751 OF 2004

Shri Suresh Govind Naik : Applicant

versus

Central Bureau of Investigations

& ors. : Respondents.

Mr.V.M.Bhardwaz for the applicant.

Mr.H.V.Mehta for Respondent No.1.

CORAM : D.G.DESHPANDE,J.

DATED : 3rd May 2005.

ORAL ORDER

1. This application is filed by the accused for extension of bail. He was granted bail for 45 days on 28th October 2004 because his wife was suffering from Ovarian Cancer. He could not avail of the bail earlier and subsequently he got himself released on bail. 45 days period is going to be expired on 6th May 2005. The condition of his wife is further deteriorated and, therefore, he has filed this application for further extension.

2. The counsel for the applicant/accused and, the accused, who is present in the Court, both of them state that as per my order dated 28.10.2004 accused has attended Jalgaon City Police Station. The counsel for the applicant/accused has also annexed the certificate.

3. It was made clear to the counsel for the accused and the accused that this is last extension. In view of this, the application is allowed. Bail period is extended by 60 days only. No further extension on this ground will be granted. The condition of attendance to remain as it is. Same bail bond to continue. Certified copy expedited. All parties to act upon certified copy of this order.
